The National Resource Center for the Healing of Racism

*"[Our] problems cannot be solved at the same level of awareness at which they were created. Hence, we need a new place to come from."
- Albert Einstein*

Who are we?

The National Resource Center for the Healing of Racism (NRCHR) was formed in 1999 by a group of community leaders in Calhoun County. Over 1,500 citizens in Calhoun County, Michigan, and numerous employees around the state of Michigan and nation found a safe haven to break the 'don't talk rule' about race, and to prepare for our true united destiny.

- Our Vision...A world where all members of our human family live the Oneness of humankind and are free of racial conditioning.
- Our Mission...Offer easy access to and acquisition of high impact racial healing products, practices, services, and training for individuals and organizations.
- Our Core Values...We believe:
 - Without exception, in the Oneness of Humankind
 - The true spirit of Human Beings is loving and compassionate
 - We erroneously learned our way into racism, and we will intentionally learn our way out of it
 - Any person, regardless of background or culture, can exhibit racial conditioning
 - A just and peaceful society cannot be achieved unless racism is eliminated in all of its forms
