

Project 20/20 & The Coordinating Council Meeting Notes

Date: February 27, 2014

Focus Statement: How do we use our existing assets and resources to create a culture of education and instill the value of education at a younger age?

ASSETS	OPPORTUNITIES	AGREED UPON OPPORTUNITY	METRICS/MILESTONES/ ACTION PLAN	30/30
Leah Clark	Service organizations can get together to fund transportation cost	Get information out to families about 211 and other services - to area marques (Kellogg Auditorium, corner of Michigan/Capital, Kellogg Arena), send to Chamber members, Great Start	Leah will check with Anji to get referral trees and send them out	Meet at next TCC/2020 meeting on 3/27
Jack Wiley			Cheryl will connect Jack to her Springfield contact
Mary Lou Bax - training programs, coaches, professional development	Support PNC reading program in schools	Support PNC reading program in schools
Rod Auton	Get information out to struggling families about 211 services
Cheryl Peters – Background in education, gets kids to dream, connecting young people to adults, collaborator
Lindsey Thomas - knowledge to eliminate/identify barriers,
Maria Drawhorn – access to network of families/org. leaders, facilitation skills, collective impact, access to diverse
Megan Russell Johnson – volunteer coordination, convening experience, best practices and policy access
Jim Cochrane – resource person (at work), experience with collaborative efforts	Discussion 2/27 Talked about organizations that could be an asset to this work - Willard Library, United Way, Community Fatherhood. Schools aren't as welcoming as kids get older. How do school disseminate info? Transportation continues to be a big issue for families.
Kathy Moroz– personal connection w/ schools, facilitation,
Mike W. – teaches, afterschool and mid-week programs, organizer/fundraiser
Cathy LaValley– teacher/administrator, love of reading, not afraid to advocate, value learning, dependable

Project 20/20 & The Coordinating Council Meeting Notes

Date: February 27, 2014

Focus Statement: How do we use our existing assets and resources to create a culture of education and instill the value of education at a younger age?

ASSETS	OPPORTUNITIES	AGREED UPON OPPORTUNITY	METRICS/MILESTONES/ ACTION PLAN	30/30
Chris Lussier – neighborhood connector, good communicator (go door-to-door), good relater, analytical/data/mapping
Dave Peterson – listener, influence w/ K-12, invest time, active team member, committed to whole community
Gilbert Ortiz – open to work, willing to share information/his story
Naomi Curtis - willingness to have open discussions, values, relating, Different Spokes network, volunteer time
Marcia Starkey – organized/organizer, volunteering, has Albion knowledge
Jennifer Nottingham – good understanding of systems, connections w/ schools, connector/mobilizer, coaching skills
Pete Christ - getting those in need together, bridge to people who care and want to take action
Kathleen Moore - interpreters, connecting, networking,
Mary Barkley - funding for welcome baby baskets (tell families what is available as far as education avail. At early time, reaches all economic levels), list of babies born since 2011, common applications
Lisa Foley - safe space, youth employment, presence in the neighborhoods,

Project 20/20 & The Coordinating Council Meeting Notes

Date: February 27, 2014

Focus Statement: How do we use our existing assets and resources to create a culture of education and instill the value of education at a younger age?

ASSETS	OPPORTUNITIES	AGREED UPON OPPORTUNITY	METRICS/MILESTONES/ ACTION PLAN	30/30
Pattie Walter - GSRP classroom
Mary Wallace - teachers, mentors
Zoe Brainard - parent coalition, ability to communicate - give them a voice

Highlighted = did not in participate in group or was unable to attend current meeting, attended previously